On September 26 the Trustees of Drexel University hosted a gala dinner to celebrate the opening of Drexel Law. Among the dignitaries who gathered in Behrakis Grand Hall to applaud those who have produced such an excellent law school were ABA President Karen Mathis (pictured at left) and Third Circuit Chief Judge Anthony Scirica.

Chief Judge Scirica (pictured right) spoke about the judiciary's expectations for America's newest law school, and President Mathis shared her vision for the role law schools must play in preserving the core tradition of public service and shaping the legal profession of tomorrow.
